COMPREHENSION

(Passage 1)

Read the passage and answer the question based on it :

The presence of certain qualities makes friendship a special relationship. A true friend is consistent and honest. A friend is not afraid to give an honest opinion and does not say things for the sake of getting approval. A friend provides companionship and continuous support. There is no room for pride, jealousy or rivalry in friendship. When one enjoys a period of prosperity, many people become available as friends. This is not friendship because these so called friends pull away in one's difficult times true friends stand by each other both in good and difficult times. In the Ramayana, Sugriva and Rama honor their pact of friendship through the entire epic. Rama helps Sugriva to kill his brother Bali and regain the kingdom. Sugriva provides his army to assist Rama in his search for Sita and does not rest until she is found and returned to Rama. In the Mahabharata, Karan at the cost of his own life, remains a true friend to Duryodhana. He honours his friendship with Duryodhana even after knowing that he, in reality, is the son of Kunti and that the Pandavas are his own brothers. He does not break his commitment to Duryodhana.

(Passage 2)

In from and feature, face and limb. I grew so like my brother. That folks got taking me for him. And each for one another. It puzzled all our kith and kin, it reached a fearful pitch. For one of us was born a twin, yet not a soul knew which. One day (to make the matter worse), before our names were fixed, as we were being washed by nurse, we got completely mixed. And thus you see, by fate's decree' (or rather nurse's whim), My brother John got christened me, And I got christened him. This fatal likeness even dogged My footsteps when at school. And I was always getting flogged, For John turned out a fool. I put this question hopelessly to everyone I knew what would you do. if you were me, To prove that you were you ? Our close resemblance turned the tide of, my domestic life. For somehow my intended bride became my brother's wife. In shot, year after year, the same. Absurd mistakes went on and when I died the neighbors came and buried brother John !
